BRANT VOTES MAYORAL FEATURE

David Swanson, candidate for mayor

David Swanson (submitted photo, as published by the Brantford Expositor, Aug 20, 2026)

ABOUT THE CANDIDATE

David Swanson is a certified candidate for mayor of the County of Brant. The County certified him on August 19, 2026.

He ran for mayor in 2022 and finished second with 1,471 votes. David Bailey won with 5,964 votes, the Brantford Expositor reported.

In his Brant Votes interview he says he also ran for Brantford City Council in 2014 and 2018.

The Expositor Q and A lists his occupation as AZ Driver Supervisor. His campaign brochure lists work in winter maintenance and snowplow supervision, asphalt paving, concrete and waste collection, plus financial services licences.

HIS MAIN IDEAS (from his brochure, Q and A answers and forum remarks)

- Bring back a Basic Income Pilot Program
- Pay County staff and contractors partly in property tax credits to pay down debt
- Sever lots on road frontages in rural areas to raise tax revenue
- Cut duplicate studies and reports
- Look at a Small Modular Reactor for local power
- Grow local food through a stronger food donation tax credit, which he calls Homestead Haven
